

"We gained new insights and the students came away informed and motivated to advocate for animals in the Twin Cities."

—Kara Underberg, Undergrad Student
Augsburg/Public Achievement Maxfield School

"Dallas [spoke] about animal rights, speciesism, and life as an activist. Her talk was informative, passionate, and most importantly, inspiring."

—Mitchell Johnson, Teacher,
Southwest High School

"Dallas encouraged our students to think about their relationship to animals in a different way. We will weave those conversations into future lessons and activities."

—Sheila Heil, Girl Scout Troop Leader

Ethical Values and Our Relationship with Animals

Presented by the Animal Rights Coalition

ANIMAL RIGHTS COALITION

NO-COST PRESENTATIONS

How can we help you teach ethical values in your classroom, in addition to motivating your students to engage in service learning?

The Animal Rights Coalition provides no-cost presentations on a variety of animal-related topics to:

- Classrooms
- Assemblies
- Student Groups
- Gifted and Talented programs

PROGRAM TOPICS

Our treatment of animals and relationship to animals, sustainability, environmental destruction, and food justice are issues that are getting a lot of attention currently in the media. These issues are important to your students.

BENEFITS

Engaging a speaker from the Animal Rights Coalition is a great way to spark student interest and create lively discussions around these topics. Our speakers and curriculum can help you teach:

- Compassion
- Courage
- Integrity
- Responsibility
- Respect

And we can do it in a way in which you can integrate these values into your everyday teaching.
